UMC business department faculty attend ACBSP Annual Regional Conference

By Krista Lemos on Friday, October 14, 2005

On September 23, 2005, University of Minnesota, Crookston (UMC) business management instructor, Eric Burgess, and Sue Brorson, head of the UMC business department, attended the Association of Collegiate Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP) Annual Regional Conference. The conference was hosted by Ivy Technical College located in Indianapolis Indiana. In a conference workshop break-out session, Burgess and Brorson teamed up to present a policy paper titled “Fostering Economic Development in Higher Education; and a research analysis of “Economic Development Programs and Initiatives in Minnesota.” The presentation was well attended by conference participants representing ACBSP member institutions of higher learning from throughout the Midwestern United States.
